

THE REVENUE
AGENCY OF ROME

The Revenue Agency is a non-economic public body that operates to ensure the highest level of tax compliance.

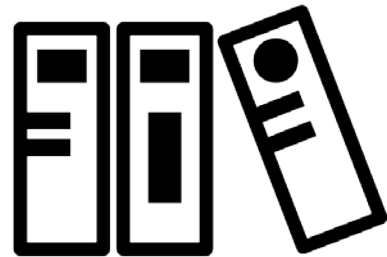

THE PROBLEM

The archive of the Revenue Agency offices in Rome houses a very high number of paper documents with sensitive information about citizens, that increases everyday due to the its daily activities.

Since these documents are subjected to the public property regime, they are considered inalienable so they must be preserved from any alteration, falsification and subtraction, avoiding any form of improper use.

KEY CHALLENGES:

- An increasing number of paper documents
- Not enough space for filing
- Regulatory requirements to be compliant

THE SOLUTION

To comply with the legislative obligation to properly keep all paper documents containing sensitive information of citizens, the Revenue Agency Management decided to install 44 mobile bases COMPATTA^{Light} with mechanical hand wheel handling.

Thanks to this filing solution, the Revenue Agency obtained over the 80% of archiving capacity in the same footprint.

Furthermore, in order to easily identify the archived documents, the mobile bases have been realized in different colors.
